

Press Release

August 19, 2009 8:30am Coarsegold, CA – Cows In Fresno River

Madera County Environmental Health inspectors have confirmed that as of 5:30pm last night nearly half of the animal carcasses have been removed from the ravine. The owners of the cattle have been working diligently to remedy the situation. Although clean-up efforts are well under way removal of these carcasses is a lengthy and laborious process. MCEHD will be assessing progress daily.
